Ms. Anne Skelton
Biography

Anne Skelton lives in St. Louis, Missouri with her husband and three children. She has spent her entire life in and around boats on Lake Michigan and the Mississippi and Illinois Rivers. Anne has been an active member of the Coast Guard Auxiliary for 30 years, and just recently retired. She has been on the AFRAS Board of Directors for 20 years – serving most of that time as either Treasurer or Assistant Treasurer.

Other than family time, Anne spends most of her time volunteering for local organizations. She reads to at-risk preschoolers through Ready Readers, works in a local thrift shop, serves on the board of directors for the Tatman Foundation, the Pioneer Parents' Association, and the Twenty-Five Gardeners of Kirkwood; she helps fundraise for the local public library, works with the St. Louis Tax Assistance Program, and participates in many volunteer activities through her church.
